History of the Church.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH PROPERTY.

The ground upon which Plymouth Church now stands, comprising seven lots, running through from Cranberry to Orange Streets, was purchased in 1823, of John and Jacob M. Hicks, for the erection of an edifice for the use of "The First Presbyterian Church." The Pastors who labored on this ground were Rev. Joseph Sanford, from 1823 to 1829, Rev. Daniel L. Carroll, D. D., from 1829 to 1835, and Rev. Samuel H. Cox, D. D., from 1837 to 1847, when the Presbyterian Society built their present house of worship upon Henry Street.

The original Church was 72 feet in length; it was afterwards enlarged by the addition of 18 feet, making it 90 feet in depth by 56 in width. The Lecture Room was 26 feet by 50 feet.

THE PURCHASE.

In 1846, John T. Howard, then a member of the Church of the Pilgrims, in Brooklyn, learning that the premises were for sale, obtained the refusal of them from the trustees, at the price of $20,000, and consulted with David Hale, of the Tabernacle Church, New York, as to the expediency of establishing a new Congregational Church at this location. Encouraged by the promised support of Mr. Hale, Mr. Howard completed the contract of purchase on June 11, 1846. The purchase money was paid on September 9, 1846. Possession was given on the 16th of May, 1847. The final conveyance to the trustees of Plymouth Church was made on June 1, 1848, for the actual cost and interest.

OPENING OF THE CHURCH.

The first meeting of those interested in the establishment of the new Church was held at the house of Henry C. Bowen, on Saturday evening, May, 1847. Present: David Hale, of New York; Jira Payne, John T. Howard, Charles Rowland, David Griffin and Henry C. Bowen, of Brooklyn.

The meeting was opened by prayer ; after which David Hale, in behalf of himself and the other owners, offered the use of the property for purposes of religious worship. Whereupon it was resolved, that religious services should be commenced on the 16th of May,—that being the first Sunday after the house was to be vacated.

On Sunday morning, May 16, 1847, notice having been given in the newspapers, the church was opened for religious worship.

Henry Ward Beecher, who was then pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, at Indianapolis, had visited New York at this time, at the request of the American Home Missionary Society, to make a public address at its anniversary. He made other addresses of a similar nature during the second week in May, and had thus become well known to the public. He was invited to preach at the opening of this church, and accordingly preached both in the morning and evening, to audiences which crowded every part of the building. Rev. Mr. Eggleston, of Ellington, Conn., preached in the afternoon.

At the close of the services, public notice was given that the first of a permanent series of weekly prayer meetings would be held in the Lecture Room (which was then on Orange Street), on the next Friday evening. On that evening, about thirty persons attended. Jira Payne conducted the exercises, which consisted mainly in prayers for the Divine blessing upon the new enterprise.

ORGANIZATION OF THE CHURCH.

At the close of the prayer meeting last mentioned, held on May 21, 1847, a business meeting was held, at which, on motion of David Hale, a committee, consisting of Henry C. Bowen, Richard Hale, John T. Howard, Charles Rowland and Jira Payne, was appointed to make arrangements for the formation of a church, and to draw up its rules, articles of faith, &c.

By Friday evening, June 11, twenty-one persons had signified their desire to unite in the formation of the new Church ; and on that evening, the committee reported a set of rules, articles of faith, covenant, form of admission, and manual for business, which, after some amendment, were adopted.

On Saturday evening, June 12, 1847, a council of ministers and delegates convened at the house of John T. Howard, No. 150 (now 174) Hicks Street, by invitation of the committee. The council consisted of Revs. R. S. Storrs, Jr., S. N. Sprague, Joseph P. Thompson, D. C. Lansing and Henry Ward Beecher ; and Bros. Chandler Starr, A. B. Davenport, David Hale and Seymour Whiting. Rev. D. C. Lansing was chosen Moderator, and Rev. I. N. Sprague, Scribe.

The committee submitted to the council the articles of faith, covenant, and rules of discipline adopted, and the credentials of twenty-one persons desiring to be organized into a church ; in which organization the council were requested to assist. The council approved of what had been done, and accepted the invitation.

On Sunday evening, June 13, 1847, the church was publicly organized ; the sermon for the occasion being preached by Rev. Richard S. Storrs, Jr., of the Church of the Pilgrims.

ORGANIZATION OF THE SOCIETY.

A meeting was held, in accordance with the laws of the State, on Monday evening, June 14, 1847, in the Lecture Room of the Church, for the purpose of organizing a religious society. Twenty persons gave in their names as members, as follows: Henry C. Bowen, John T. Howard, Eli C. Blake, Charles Rowland, Jira Payne, Alpheus R. Turner, David Griffin, Horatio G. Abbey, Alexander Studwell, Richard Hale, John P. Montgomery, Daniel Burgess, Henry A. Chittenden, Benjamin S. Burgess, Andrew Ayres, Cornelius S. Smith, John P. Angen, Rufus Claggett, James M. Duffield, and J. Wilson Green. Jira Payne was appointed chairman, and J. Wilson Green secretary, both of whom were appointed inspectors of election for trustees.

Henry C. Bowen, John T. Howard, and Daniel Burgess were elected trustees, who subsequently were divided by lot to serve, each in the order above, for the term of one, two, and three years. "The Plymouth Church" was adopted, upon deliberation, as the corporate name of the society.

The certificate of incorporation was recorded in the Clerk's Office of Kings County, on September 27, 1847.

On May 29, 1848, the number of Trustees was, by vote of the society, increased to nine. As the statute, at that time, did not authorize an increase of the number, the vote was ratified at the annual meeting, held January 6, 1870, in conformity with law.

CALL AND INSTALLATION OF PASTOR.

On Monday evening, June 14, 1847, the church met to choose a pastor. Only male members being then allowed to vote, eight ballots were cast, all of which were for Henry Ward Beecher; and a committee was appointed to act with the society in presenting the call. The society met for the same purpose on the same evening. Twenty members were present, all of whom voted for the same pastor.

During the summer the church was opened for religious worship three times each Sunday. Various clergymen, mostly from New England, were invited to supply the pulpit.

After some two months' delay, Henry Ward Beecher, who had returned to his charge in Indianapolis, accepted the call of the church in the following letter:

INDIANAPOLIS, AUGUST 19, 1847.

DEAR BROTHERS:

I desire to convey through you to the Plymouth Church and Congregation my acceptance of the call to the pastoral office tendered by them to me.

I cannot regard the responsibilities of this important field without the most serious diffidence; and I wholly put my trust in that Saviour who I am to preach in your midst. I can heartily adopt the language of Paul: "Brethren pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified."

It will be necessary for me to remain yet for some time in this place; but I hope to arrive in Brooklyn in the middle of October, or at farthest by the first of November.

I am in Christian love,
Most truly yours,
H. W. BEECHER.

JNO. T. HOWARD, H. C. BOWEN,
CHAS. ROWLAND, and others.

On Sunday, October 10, 1847, he commenced his labors; and on Thursday, November 11, he was publicly installed as pastor of the church and congregation, by a council called for that purpose, of which Rev. Nathaniel Hewitt, D. D., was chosen moderator, and Rev. S. W. S. Dutton, scribe.

The services of Installation were as follows:

Invocation and Reading of the Scriptures—by Rev. Heman Humphrey, D. D.

Sermon—by Rev. Edward Beecher, D. D.

Installing Prayer—by Rev. N. Hewit, D. D.

Charge to the Pastor—by Rev. D. C. Lansing, D. D.

The Fellowship of the Churches—by Rev. R. S. Storrs, Jr.

Address to the People—by Rev. J. P. Thompson.

Concluding Prayer—by Rev. H. Bushnell, D. D.

PROGRESS OF THE CHURCH.

On the very first Sunday (October 10, 1847) upon which the pastor occupied the pulpit, the church was about three-fourths full in the morning, and entirely full in the evening. This continued to be the case for about four months; after which the building was generally crowded both morning and evening. At this time an interesting revival of religious feeling spread through the congregation, in the course of which about seventy persons were led to hope that they had given their hearts to Christ; about fifty of whom joined this church. Most of the others united themselves with other evangelical churches.

The church has been blessed with a frequent recurrence of revivals, particularly in the years 1849, 1852, 1855, 1857, 1858, 1862, 1865 and 1866. Of these, the revival of 1858 was attended with the most decided results, 335 persons having made a profession of faith under its influence. The revival of 1852 was, relatively to the previous membership of the church, the next in interest, 91 persons having joined upon profession during its progress. In the revival of 1866, 93 persons joined in like manner.

These revivals have been singularly free from undue excitement; the means used in them having been such as were common at all times in the history of the church. No additional evening meetings were held before 1866, when extra meetings were appointed for Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. In every spring, from 1848 until 1852, inclusive, a daily morning prayer meeting was held under the conduct of the pastor, and this meeting was revived in 1857, 1858 and 1862, with most beneficial results. In 1870, 1871 and 1872, although no special meetings were held, the number joining on profession was greater than ever before, except in 1858—averaging 140 in each year.

In 1848 a social meeting was established, which was held once a fortnight, on Tuesday evenings, during every winter season until 1856. At this gathering an opportunity was afforded for making the acquaintance of the pastor, and for the promotion of friendly feeling among members of the church. The effect of these "social circles" was extremely happy; the harmony and mutual regard of members being promoted thereby in a remarkable degree. But, for obvious reasons, the management of such meetings required very great judgment and care, imposing no small labor upon the pastor; and having accomplished their design, and helped to give the church a tone of Christian sociability which, it is believed, is still maintained, their continuance was deemed unnecessary.

In March, 1849, the pastor was taken with a severe illness, which confined him to the house for two months, and disabled him from preaching until September, nor did he recover his full strength until the winter. In June, 1850, the society, of its own accord, gave him leave of absence to visit Europe, and he did not return until September. In 1856, the society, at the request of a number of eminent clergymen and others, voted him leave of absence to traverse the country on behalf of the cause of liberty, then felt to be in peril. In June, 1863, the society requested him to revisit Europe for his health, which he did, returning in November. With these exceptions, the pastor has labored steadily at his post, at all times other than his regular summer vacation.

THE CHURCH BUILDINGS.

The original buildings, as already stated, consisted of a church fronting on Cranberry street, and a lecture room fronting on Orange street. These rooms were, from the first, inadequate to the wants of the congregation; and the subject of rebuilding was already under consideration, when, on January 13, 1849, the structure was so seriously damaged by fire as to settle the question; the society being unanimously of opinion, after examination, that the church should be entirely rebuilt, rather than repaired.

No sooner had the congregation been deprived of their place of worship by fire than invitations were extended by almost all the neighboring churches to use their respective buildings for worship, which kindness was gratefully accepted for a period of nearly two months. Sunday-evening services were held during this time in the Church of the Pilgrims. As it was found to be impossible to conserve the interests of the church and congregation while they were in such an unsettled and migratory state, they at once decided to erect a temporary place of worship upon grounds in Pierrepont street, generously offered by Lewis Tappan. A building, 100 feet by 80, was erected in the brief space of thirty days; and in this the congregation worshipped, with great pleasure and profit, until the first Sunday in January, 1850. The whole expense of the "Tabernacle," including a small study, was $2,800. The sale of the building, together with the Sunday collections taken during its occupancy, more than reimbursed the original cost; and the rents of pews were amply sufficient to meet current expenses.*

A committee was appointed by the society to devise plans for the new building, of which committee Sherman Day was chairman. A rough plan of the Church, as it now exists, was drawn up by Mr. Day, in consultation with the pastor, who insisted upon the necessity of accommodating at least 2,000 persons—a number deemed by some extravagant. The committee also prepared a sketch of the other parts of the building; and the whole was then reduced to exact proportions by J. C. Wells, the architect under whose direction the building was erected. The mason work was done by Solomon Conklin, and the carpenter work by Tappan Reeve. The corner-stone was laid May 29, 1849; and the building was completed so as to be occupied by the congregation on the first Sunday of January, 1850, the very day specified by the contract.

The church building is 105 feet long, 80 feet broad, and 43 feet from floor to ceiling; seating in the pews and choir gallery about 2,100 persons, while with the seats by the walls and in the aisles, it accommodates about 2,800. There has never been the least cause for regret that the building was made so large.

Until 1857, visitors were provided with ordinary chairs or stools in the aisles. But in that year the present fixed aisle seats, attached to the pews, were invented and introduced into the church.

The lecture room, built at the same time, was 80 by 50 feet on the outside; with a school-room above it, 64 by 24 feet, and parlors of the same size for the social circle. In 1859 these parlors were added to the school room; but, even then, the accommodations were so deficient that in 1862 an entirely new lecture room and school-room were erected, of which more will be said in another place.

A new organ was purchased for the church in 1866, at an expense of $22,000: it was manufactured by Messrs. Hook & Co., of Boston, and is the largest church organ in the United States.

* It may be interesting to state that the pews and doors used in the construction of this tabernacle were taken out of the old church; that the entire structure was shipped to California on speculation, in 1850, and there recognized by Sherman Day (formerly of Plymouth Church), who purchased it for the use of a church in San José, where it is still occupied for public worship.

CHURCH FINANCES.

The original buildings, when occupied by the First Presbyterian Church, were subject to a mortgage of $10,500. The remainder of the purchase money ($9,500) was raised by loans, upon the personal responsibility of Messrs. David Hale, John T. Howard, Henry C. Bowen, and Seth B. Hunt.

The buildings erected in 1849 were paid for mainly by a subscription of $31,127, raised upon scrip bearing interest payable in pew rents, the principal payable from the surplus revenue of the church. Twenty per cent. of this scrip was paid off in 1865, and the remainder in 1866. The entire cost of the buildings was about $36,000. To provide for the original mortgage, and the floating debt, the property was mortgaged for $16,000. All incumbrances on the property were, however, long since paid off, and the church is now entirely free from debt.

The new lecture-room and school-room were provided for by donations to the amount of $10,800, and furnished partly by means of festivals held by the Sunday-school for that purpose, and partly out of the current income of the society from pew rents. Their entire cost was about $13,000.

The pew rents, for such years as records have been kept, were as follows:

1853.....$11,157	1860.....$28,682	1867.....$49,000
1854..... 11,729	1861..... 28,750	1868..... 50,335
1855..... 12,053	1862..... 18,100	1869..... 54,970
1856..... 12,505	1863..... 23,396	1870..... 57,840
1857..... 14,340	1864..... 31,000	1871..... 56,744
1858..... 16,300	1865..... 39,042	1872..... 60,318
1859..... 26,052	1866..... 42,782	1873..... 59,114

Out of the pew rents of the last five years alone, the sum of $78,950 has been applied to strictly mission purposes, exclusive of all expenditure upon the church or its own Sunday-school.

The collections of the church for benevolent objects of all kinds (exclusive of pew rents, but including contributions in the schools), so far as any records remain, have been as follows:

1850.....$1,873	1858.....$ 5,148	1866.....$20,742
1851..... 2,863	1859..... 6,340	1867..... 18,564
1852..... 1,815	1860..... 9,584	1868..... 39,712
1853..... 4,339	1861..... 11,980	1869..... 11,520
1854..... 5,116	1862..... 18,106	1870..... 18,938
1855..... 6,008	1863.....no record.	1871..... 27,030
1856.....no record.	1864..... 11,144	1872..... 19,788
1857..... 6,306	1865..... 14,572	1873..... 38,221

These figures do not include any contributions not taken under the immediate supervision of officers of the church or society, and represent only a very small part of the donations of the congregation. Recently, an effort was made to ascertain the contributions of members outside of the church collections; and it was found that over $300,000 had been given in one year, for charitable purposes, by the public subscriptions of a small portion of the members. Concerning the private charities of these members, and the general donations of all the rest of the church, no trustworthy estimate can be made.

PLYMOUTH SUNDAY SCHOOL.

A Sunday School was opened on September 5, 1847, with an attendance of 10 teachers and 28 scholars. In May, 1848, it numbered 25 teachers and 140 scholars, with an average attendance of 140 in all. In December, 1850, the attendance was 174; in December, 1855, 159; in December, 1860, 380; in 1861, 480; in 1862, 580; and has ever since ranged from 700 to 750; while the whole number of teachers and pupils attending with more or less regularity is now nearly 1,000. The actual attendance on the first Sunday in January, 1874, was 721.

The Superintendents of the school have been as follows:

Henry C. Bowen, from September, 1847, to January, 1848.
Luther Eames, from January 1, 1848, to Jan. 1, 1849.
Edward Corning, from January 1, 1849, to January 1, 1851.
Henry E. Morrill, from Jan. 1, 1851, to Jan. 1, 1861.
George A. Bell, from January 1, 1861, to January 1, 1866.
Rositter W. Raymond, from January 1, 1866, to January 1, 1870.
Charles C. Duncan, from January 1, 1870, to January 1, 1874.
Robert R. Raymond, from Jan. 1, 1874, to the present time.

The expenses of the school were defrayed, in part, by the teachers, and in part by subscriptions and collections in the church, until January, 1860, when they were assumed by the Society, which has ever since provided for them out of its current receipts.

The school has always met in a room above the lecture room. When the church was rebuilt in 1849, a room 64 feet long, by 24 feet wide, was assigned to the school; but the Bible classes were held in separate rooms. In 1859, the Social Circle Parlors were annexed to the school-room, thus doubling its capacity. But even this space was found entirely insufficient to accommodate the children of the congregation, large numbers of whom were obliged to attend other Sunday schools.

In the spring of 1862, therefore, a subscription of $10,800 was raised for the erection of the present convenient and pleasant building, in which are situated the school-room, lecture-room, and parlors for the sewing circle. An organ of moderate size, but excellent quality, was provided for the school, at an expense of $1,050, the gift of a few members of the society. The new building was opened for religious services on November 16, 1862. A gallery for the use of visitors and Bible Classes was added in 1864.

The contributions of the Sunday school for benevolent purposes, so far as any records remain, have been as follows :

1851	$ 86	1860	$ 351	1867	$1,200
1854	141	1861	300	1868	697
1855	113	1862	606	1869	849
1856	174	1863	880	1870	785
1857	256	1864	1,514	1871	3,872
1858	291	1865	3,717	1872	840
1859	241	1866	1,211	1873	about 1,000

THE BETHEL MISSION.

The Bethel Mission Sunday School was established in 1841, on Main Street near the Catharine Ferry, and is the oldest mission in Brooklyn. For many years a large proportion of the teachers were from Plymouth Church, though the school was not specially connected with this church, until June 1, 1866. At that time the mission occupied rooms at Nos. 43 and 44 Fulton Street. Its superintendents had been, successively, Messrs. Wadsworth, John P. Elwell, Albert Woodruff, J. J. Judson, Sumner R. Stone, Martius T. Lynde, Andrew A. Smith and Robert S. Bassing. Since its connection with Plymouth Church, its Superintendents have been George A. Bell (from February, 1867, to February, 1872), Thomas H. Bird (from February to May, 1872), and Thomas J. Tilney, (since May, 1872). On June 1, 1866, the church unanimously voted to adopt the school as one of its regular institutions. This offer was accepted by the school, and the action of the church was formally ratified by the society at its annual meeting, January 10, 1867. In February, 1867, steps were taken to provide a suitable building for the mission. $20,000 were obtained by subscriptions, and $6,250 by a fair held in Plymouth Church. These sums were placed in the hands of the Trustees of the church, and the present building was erected by them at a total cost (including $15,000 for the land) of $75,000. About $50,000 of this sum was derived from the surplus of the pew rents. The new building was first occupied in October, 1868. It is entirely free from incumbrance.

The work of this mission has taken a wide scope. It has a fine reading room, well supplied with the leading papers and magazines, and an excellent library of some 2,000 volumes, which are open every evening except on Sunday. These rooms are constantly resorted to by numerous mechanics and other laboring men. Popular Lectures, Concerts and other entertainments are given during the winter. The school has had a steady growth ever since it came under the care of the church. It has an enrollment of over 1,200 teachers and scholars.

The actual attendance on the first Sunday in January, 1874, was 799, which is about the usual number present. In 1868 a Mothers' Bible class was formed, which has now about 100 members, with an attendance of about 70. In 1870 a Married Men's class was formed, which has reached a membership of some 250, with an average attendance of about 125. In 1869 Mr. Charles M. Morton was engaged as a missionary for the Bethel, and his labors have been greatly blessed. The married men's class has been under his care since its organization.

There have been a large number of conversions at the Bethel every year since its connection with Plymouth Church.

THE MAYFLOWER MISSION.

This Mission was originated under the name of "Navy Mission," and was known by that title until several months after its formal adoption by Plymouth Church. Its name was changed to the "Plymouth Mission," in November, 1872, and to the "Mayflower Mission of Plymouth Church," on May 1, 1874.

It was established in the vicinity of the Navy Yard in 1844. Soon afterwards and until June, 1871, it occupied a building in Front street, corner of Green lane. In 1867 it was adopted by the Church of the Pilgrims, which, however, abandoned it in the Spring of 1870. From that time until January, 1871, it was sustained independently by a few of its faithful teachers.

At the annual meeting of the Society of Plymouth Church in January, 1871, the mission was adopted by this church. In May of the same year the building of the Third Presbyterian Church in Jay street (between Sands and High Streets) was purchased for its use for the sum of $12,000, and in June it was occupied by the mission. During the spring of 1872, the Trustees expended about $13,000 in alterations, which made the building one of the best adapted and most attractive for the purpose to be found in the city. This property is also wholly free from incumbrance, and no debt attaches to the mission in any form.

The Superintendents in charge of the mission since its adoption by this church have been Messrs. C. A. Van Wagoner, S. F. Strong, George A. Bell and H. B. White. Mr. Bell took charge in February, 1872, and Mr. White in April, 1873.

The school is in a prosperous condition, having already attained a membership of 700, with an average attendance of 500. The actual attendance on January 4th, 1874, was 499.

A reading room has been opened, well supplied with papers and magazines.

THE MEMORIAL FUND.

In October, 1872, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Pastor's settlement over the church was celebrated by a week of prayer and praise, after which, as an expression of gratitude for the Divine favor which had brought the church through so many prosperous and blessed years, a fund of about $40,000 was subscribed, which was placed in charge of a corporation, called "The Plymouth Memorial Fund Association," of which the Pastor of this church, the trustees of the society, and the superintendents of the two mission schools are ex-officio directors. The income of this fund is to be devoted to defraying the current expenses of the Bethel Mission and the Mayflower Mission, when the church shall not be able from its own income to meet those expenses, and thus to secure the maintenance of these institutions.

 In 1854, 1858 and 1866, the register was carefully revised, and many members' names stricken off, who had in fact left or died long before. This accounts for the apparent excess in the number of dismissals in those over other years.

Articles of Faith.

[The Articles of Faith, having been revised by a Special Committee, were adopted by the church on the 17th of April, 1848, by a unanimous vote.]

1. We believe in the existence of One Ever-living and True God, Sovereign and Unchangeable, Infinite in Power, Wisdom and Goodness.

2. We believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be inspired of God, to contain a revelation of his will, and to be the authoritative rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe that the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, are revealed in the Scriptures as existing, in respect to attributes, character and office, as three Persons, equally Divine; while in other respects they are united, and are, in a proper sense, One God.

4. We believe that our First Parents were created upright, that they fell from their original state by disobedience, and that all their posterity are not only prone to sin, but do become sinful and guilty before God.

5. We believe that God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son to die for it; that Christ appeared in the flesh; that he set forth a perfect example of obedience; that he purely taught the truths needful for our salvation; that he suffered in our stead, the just for the unjust; that he died to atone for our sins, and to purify us therefrom; and that he rose from the dead and ascended into heaven, where he ever liveth to make intercession for us.

6. We believe that God offers full forgiveness and everlasting life to all who will heartily repent and believe in the Lord Jesus Christ; while those who do not believe, but persevere in sin, shall finally perish.

7. We believe in the resurrection of all the dead, in a final and general Judgment, upon the awards of which the wicked shall go into everlasting punishment, and the righteous into life eternal.

[Until January 7, 1870, the assent of members joining on profession was required to these articles; but an amendment was then passed dispensing with this requirement.]

Form of Admission to the Church.

[The persons about to unite with the church upon a profession of faith will take their places in front of the pulpit.]

ADDRESS BY THE PASTOR.

You have separated yourselves from this congregation, dear friends, to perform one of the most momentous and yet joyful acts of your life. You will never cease to feel the effect of the dedication which you now make. Should you cling affectionately to that Redeemer whom you are now about openly to avouch, you will ever rejoice that you were brought to this hour; but if your soul shall draw back, and you shall put Christ to an open shame, this deed and this hour shall be everlasting witnesses against you.

You have been deeply convinced of your personal sinfulness; you have heartily repented thereof; you have believed in the forgiving love of Jesus Christ; you have dedicated your heart and life to him; that dedication you are about to renew in the presence of God and this congregation. Yet, be not cast down. Though we have thought it meet to admonish you, it is with a calm and cheerful hope that He, who in love has called you, will never leave nor forsake you until you shall stand in Zion and before God.

COVENANT.

Do you now avouch the Lord Jehovah to be your God, Jesus Christ to be your Saviour, the Holy Spirit to be your Sanctifier? Renouncing the dominion of this world over you, do you consecrate your whole soul and body to the service of God? Do you receive his word as the rule of your life, and, by his grace assisting you, will you persevere in this consecration unto the end?

[The ordinance of Baptism, if not previously received, will here be administered.]

COVENANT WITH THE CHURCH.

[Here those who unite by letter will rise in their places.]

Do you solemnly covenant and agree to study the peace, purity and liberty of this church, to love and watch over its members as your brethren, to receive from them all needful care and admonition? Will you labor together with us in the maintenance of its public worship and ordinances, submit to necessary discipline, and avoid all causes of scandal and offence, so long as in the Providence of God you shall continue among us?

[The members of the Church will here rise.]

We, then, the members of this Church, do joyfully and cordially receive you into our number. We promise to bear with you, to love, to edify, and by all means in our power to advance you in the Divine life. AMEN.

Ecclesiastical Principles and Rules.

I. Ecclesiastical Principles.

Rule 1. Independence.—This church is an independent ecclesiastical body; and, in matters of doctrine, order and discipline, is amenable to no other organization.

Rule 2. Fellowship with other Churches.—This church will extend to other evangelical churches, and receive from them, that fellowship, advice, and assistance, which the laws of Christ require.

II. Membership.

Rule 3. Admission.—Application for church membership, either by letter or upon profession, must be made to the Examining Committee; but all members of the church are entitled to participate in the examination. Those applicants who are approved by the Committee must be propounded to the church and congregation on the Sunday immediately preceding the communion. The church shall pass upon the names so propounded, at the next business meeting, and the persons accepted become members upon giving their public assent to the Covenants of the Church.

Rule 4. Discipline.—Members cannot be censured except by the process herein stated:

1. Complaints must be made in writing, either to the Examining Committee or to the whole church.
2. If the complaint is made to the Examining Committee, the facts must first be investigated by it, so far as to determine whether there is reasonable probability that the charges can be sustained by proof.
3. If the complaint is made to the church, it may order a similar investigation by the Examining Committee, or by a special committee, before deciding to proceed.
4. If the Examining Committee or the church decides to proceed with the case, the Clerk of the church must use due diligence to forward a copy of the complaint to the accused, and, if practicable, to give him personal notice of the time and place of hearing.

5. The accused must in all cases, when a trial is had, have a full opportunity to be heard in his own defence.

6. The church may refer any case of discipline to a committee, to hear the evidence, and report its opinion on the whole case, or any part thereof.

7. When a complaint is made to the Examining Committee, the accused, at his first appearance, may require the committee to submit to the church the question, whether the complaint shall be taken out of the committee for trial; and the committee cannot proceed meantime.

8. Proceedings before the Examining Committee shall be kept private until otherwise ordered by the church; and the committee, unless the complaint is sustained, or unless it desires instructions, or unless a report is ordered by vote of the church, shall make no report upon the case.

9. No member of a committee can vote upon its final report in a case of discipline, unless he has heard or read the evidence and arguments in the case, except by consent of both the complainant and the accused.

10. If the evidence has been taken by a committee, the church is not bound to hear evidence on either side.

11. Final censure can be inflicted only by the church, and by the concurrence of two-thirds of all present and voting.

RULE 5. Censures.—The censures which may be inflicted on offending members are, according to the aggravation of the offence, either (1) private reproof, (2) public admonition, (3) suspension, or (4) excommunication. In cases of excommunication, notice thereof must be given from the pulpit on the Sabbath.

RULE 6. Dismission.—It is expected that members, on removing from the city, or to other churches in the city, will ask for letters of dismission and recommendation. A request for such a letter must be announced at the weekly prayer-meeting; and if no objection is made to the Clerk, he must issue a letter accordingly, and strike the name of the member dismissed from the roll of the church.

If objection is made, the matter must be submitted to the Examining Committee.

RULE 7. Dropping Members.—Members may be dropped from the roll of the church, with or without notice to them, as may be deemed just, by a two-thirds vote of the church, upon the recommendation of the Examining Committee, either upon their own application, or, in case they have abandoned their connection with the church by prolonged absence or otherwise, upon the application of any other person.

RULE 8. Deaths to be Recorded.—In case of the death of any member of the church, it shall be the duty of any surviving member of the family to notify the Clerk. And if none of the family or immediate relatives of the deceased are members of this church, then it shall be the duty of any member of the church, acquainted with the facts, to inform the Clerk of the same in writing, that it may be entered upon the records.

III. ORDINANCES.

RULE 9. Communion.—The Lord's Supper shall be celebrated (unless otherwise directed by the church), on the first Sunday of January, March, May, July, September and November, at the church, also on the last Sunday evening of the same months at the Bethel, and on the first Sunday evening of February, April, June, August, October and December, at the Mayflower Mission.

RULE 10. Infant Baptism.—Baptism shall be administered at the church to infant children of believing parents on the first suitable Sunday morning, and at the Bethel and Mayflower Missions on the first suitable Sunday afternoon, after their respective communions. Parents must furnish to the Clerk, in writing, a statement of their own names, the full name of each child presented for baptism, and the date of its birth, which shall be entered on the records of the church. Children over ten years of age are not admissible to baptism, except upon profession of their faith.

IV. SUNDAY-SCHOOLS AND MISSIONS.

RULE 11. Schools.—The schools and missions under the care of the church are the Plymouth Sunday School, the Bethel Mission, and the Mayflower Mission.

RULE 12. How Managed.—The affairs of each of the schools and missions shall be managed by its teachers, subject to the control of the church.

RULE 13. Membership of Officers.—The principal Superintendent, and a majority of the whole number of teachers and officers of each school or mission, must be members of Plymouth Church.

RULE 14. Annual Reports.—The Superintendent of each school or mission must furnish to the Clerk of the church, on or before the first day of December in each year, a report of its work during the previous year, and of its condition at the date of such report.

V. MEETINGS.

RULE 15. Prayer Meetings.—This church will meet for prayer and conference, in the lecture-room, every Friday evening. The meeting shall be conducted by the Pastor, or, in his absence, by one of the brethren. Meetings for prayer and conference shall also be held at the Bethel Mission every Tuesday evening, and at the Mayflower Mission every Wednesday evening, unless otherwise ordered by the teachers. These meetings shall be conducted by the respective superintendents of the missions, or by brethren appointed by them.

RULE 16. Business Meetings.—A regular business meeting of the church shall be held after the close of the prayer meeting, on the Friday evening next preceding the first Sunday in each month; but at the meeting next before the communion at the church no business other than the reception and dismission of members shall be transacted, except by unanimous consent.

RULE 17. Special Meetings.—The Pastor or Clerk may, of his own motion, and the Clerk must, on the written requisition of any seven members of full age, call a special business meeting of the church, by causing a notice to be read from the pulpit, or, where the only business to be transacted is the appointment of delegates to a council, by a notice given in the lecture-room.

RULE 18. Annual Meeting.—A meeting of the church for the choice of officers, and transaction of other business, shall be held annually on the second Friday evening of December, at which the Clerk and Music Committee must present their reports, and the Treasurer must present his accounts duly audited.

RULE 19. General Provisions.—No business can be transacted except at meetings regularly organized, and with at least seven members present; nor can any business other than the reading of the reports be transacted at the annual meeting, unless at least twenty members have been present at some stage of the meeting. But the action of a meeting irregularly convened, or without a quorum, may be ratified at a subsequent regular meeting competent to act upon the subject.

RULE 20. Moderator.—At each business meeting a moderator must be elected.

RULE 21. Prayer.—All meetings for business must be opened with prayer.

RULE 22. Resolutions.—Resolutions cannot be voted upon at the same meeting at which they are offered, if any objection is made to a vote being taken, but must, in that case, be reduced to writing and laid over to the next business meeting, except in the case of resolutions offered at the annual meeting.

RULE 23. Rules of Order.—Business shall be transacted at the annual meeting in the following order :

1. Reading the minutes ;
2. Annual reports of the Clerk, Treasurer and Music Committee ;
3. Election of officers ;
4. Proposed amendments to these Rules, the Articles of Faith, Covenants or Form of Admission ;
5. Other business.

In all other respects, business meetings shall be regulated by the Manual or settled usage of the church, and, in cases not provided for thereby, by Cushing's Manual.

RULE 30. Other Officers.—The Clerks, Treasurer and Auditors shall be chosen at the annual meeting, for one year from the Sunday following their election.

RULE 31. Mode of Election.—All the officers (except the Committee on Church Work) must be chosen by ballot, unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent. A majority of all the members present and voting shall be necessary to a choice.

RULE 32. Vacancies.—Vacancies in any of the offices (except the Pastorate), occurring between the annual meetings, may be filled for the unexpired terms at any regular business meeting: notice of the election having been given from the pulpit on the preceding Sunday. And vacancies may be filled at the annual meeting, without notice.

RULE 33. Duties of Deacons.—It is the peculiar duty of the Deacons to assist in the administration of the Lord's Supper. It is the peculiar duty of the Deaconesses to visit the sick and poor among the women and children of the church and congregation. It is the duty of the Board of Deacons:

RULE 47. Alteration of Rules. The Confession of Faith, Covenants, Form of Admission, and Ecclesiastical Principles and Rules shall not be altered or suspended, except as hereinbefore prescribed, or at an annual meeting, by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the church present and voting; nor can they be altered even in such case, unless a notice containing the substance of the alteration has been presented to the church in writing at another business meeting within one month previously, or at a session of the same annual meeting held not less than one week before final action. But an alteration adopted at an annual meeting may be rescinded at the next regular business meeting, if notice of an intention to move for such rescission is presented to the church in writing at such annual meeting.

[The foregoing rules, having been revised by the Committee which prepared this Manual, were adopted as they now stand, at the annual meeting of 1873–4.]

Rules of Order for Business Meetings.

1. It is the duty of the Clerk to call the meeting to order at the time appointed, and when a Moderator has been nominated, to put the question upon the choice. In the absence of the Clerk, any member may call the meeting to order, nominate a Moderator, and put the question. A Clerk pro tem. should then be chosen. If the meeting is adjourned to another day, the same Moderator presides.

2. Every motion must be reduced to writing, if required by any member.

3. When a motion is made and seconded, it should be read or stated by the Moderator, and is then before the meeting for consideration; and, until it is disposed of, no other business is in order. It may be withdrawn by the mover at any time, if no vote has been taken on it or an amendment of it.

4. Several amendments may be moved to a proposition.

5. A motion to amend an amendment may be made, but not to amend the second amendment.

6. A motion to strike out all the words after "resolved," and to substitute a new proposition on the same subject, is in order.

7. Privileged motions may be made at any time. They are: (1) to adjourn, (2) to lay on the table, (3) the previous question, (4) to refer to a committee, (5) to postpone to a time fixed.

The first three are not debatable.

8. If the previous question is carried, no further debate is in order, and the pending motion, with amendments offered, must be immediately put to vote. The refusal of the previous question has no other effect than to allow debate to proceed for the time.

9. Motions to amend are to be put in inverse order.

10. In filling a blank, if several sums are proposed, the largest is put to the question first, and of several times the longest.

11. When a vote is to be taken, the Moderator, after stating the question to be decided, calls first upon those who are in favor of the motion, and then upon those who are opposed, to rise, or raise their hands, and announces his decision. Any member may, before another motion is made, call for a count, when the Moderator must call first upon the "ayes," and then upon the "noes," to rise and stand until counted. Upon the demand of twenty members, the names of members voting must be recorded by yeas and nays upon the minutes.

12. While a vote is being taken, debate is out of order.

13. When two or more resolutions are offered at once, any member has a right to demand a division of the question, so as to take a vote upon each separately; but in other cases a division of the question cannot be demanded as of right.

14. A member, who voted with the majority, may, during the same or the next meeting, move a reconsideration of the vote, which motion opens the subject again to debate.

15. While a member has the floor, no motion can be made without his consent.

16. The Moderator is bound to confine debate to the point under discussion.

17. If a point of order is raised during debate, it must be decided by the Moderator, subject to an appeal to the meeting, before the debate proceeds.

18. An appeal to the meeting may be taken from any decision of the Moderator. On such appeal the appellant and the Moderator may each make a brief argument, and no other debate is in order.

19. Debate is not in order unless there is a motion before the meeting; but one who makes a motion may preface it with remarks.

20. If the floor is claimed by more than one member, the Moderator decides who is entitled to it.

21. The question before the meeting must be stated by the Moderator on the request of any member.

22. A vote to accept a report is not equivalent to its adoption, but simply directs the paper to be received for consideration and placed on file.

23. A vote to adopt the report of a committee makes the action of the committee, as stated in the report, the action of the meeting.

§ 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any two of such trustees, other than the trustees mentioned in the first section of this act, or their successors, at any time to call a meeting of such trustees, and that a majority of the trustees of any church, congregation or society, mentioned in this act, being lawfully convened, shall be competent to do and perform all matters and things which such trustees are authorized or required to do and perform, and that all questions arising at any such meetings shall be determined by a majority of the trustees present, and, in case of an equal division, the presiding trustee shall have a casting vote.

§ 6. And be it further enacted, That the trustees first chosen according to the third section of this act, shall continue in office for three years from the day of their election, and immediately after such election the said trustees shall be divided by lot into three classes, numbered one, two and three, and the seats of the members of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the first year, of the members of the second class at the expiration of the second year, and the members of the third class at the expiration of the third year, to the end that the third part of the whole number of trustees, as nearly as possible, may be annually chosen; and the said trustees, or a majority of them, shall, at least one month before the expiration of the office of any of the said trustees, notify the same in writing to the minister, or in case of his death or absence, to the elders or churchwardens, and in case there shall be no elders or churchwardens, then to the deacons or vestrymen of any such church, congregation or society, specifying the names of the trustees, whose terms will expire, and the said minister, or in case of his death or absence, one of the said elders or churchwardens, or deacons or vestrymen shall, in manner aforesaid, proceed to notify the members of the said church, congregation or society, of such vacancies, and appoint the time and place for the election of new trustees to fill up the same, which election shall be held at least six days before such vacancies shall happen, and all such subsequent elections shall be held and conducted by the same persons, and in the manner above directed, and the result thereof certified by them, and such certificate shall entitle the persons elected to act as trustees, and in case any trustee shall die or refuse to act, or remove within the year, notice thereof shall be given by the trustees as aforesaid, and a new election appointed and held, and another trustee be elected in his stead, in manner aforesaid.

§ 7. And be it further enacted, That no person belonging to any church, congregation or society, intended by the third section of this act, shall be entitled to vote at any election succeeding the first, until such person shall have been a stated attendant on divine worship in the said church, congregation or society, at least one year before such election, and shall have contributed to the support of the said church, congregation or society, according to the usages and customs thereof, and that the clerk to the said trustees shall keep a register of the names of all such persons as shall desire to become stated hearers in said church, congregation or society, and shall therein note the time when such request was made, and the said clerk shall attend all such subsequent elections, in order to test the qualifications of such electors, in case the same should be questioned.

§ 8. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed or taken to give to any trustees of any church, congregation or society, the power to fix or ascertain any salary to be paid to any minister thereof, but the same shall be ascertained by a majority of persons entitled to elect trustees, at a meeting to be called for that purpose, and such salaries, when fixed, shall be ratified by the said trustees; or a majority of them, by an instrument in writing under their common seal, which salary shall thereupon be paid by the said trustees out of the revenues of such church, congregation or society.

§ 9. And be it further enacted, That whenever any religious corporation within this State, other than the chartered corporations, shall deem it necessary and for the interest of such religious corporation to reduce or to increase the number of trustees, that it shall and may be lawful for any such religious corporation to reduce or to increase their number of trustees at any annual meeting: Provided, That such reduction or increase shall not be such as to have a less number than three, or a larger number than nine, trustees in any one of the said religious corporations; Provided, That a notice of at least two weeks shall be given, at a regular meeting of such society, of the time and place of holding any meeting at which any such reduction or increase may be proposed.—[As amended, Laws 1866, ch. 414.]

§ 10. [Immaterial.]

§ 11. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Chancellor of this State,* upon the application of any religious corporation, in case he shall deem it proper, to make an order for the sale of any real estate belonging to such corporation, and to direct the application of the moneys arising therefrom by the said corporation to such uses as the same corporation, with the consent and approbation of the Chancellor,* shall conceive to be most for the interest of the society to which the real estate so sold did belong: Provided, That this act shall not extend to any of the lands granted by the State for the support of the Gospel.

§ 12. [Relates only to churches incorporated before 1775.]

*This power is now vested in the Supreme Court.

§ 13. And be it farther enacted, That every corporation of any church, congregation or religious society, heretofore made in pursuance of any law of this State, and in conformity to the directions contained in this act, shall be, and the same is hereby established and confirmed, and such corporation shall be deemed to have commenced from the time of recording such certificate as aforesaid; and in case of the dissolution of any such corporation, or of any corporation hereafter to be formed in pursuance of this act, by reason of a non-compliance with the direction herein contained, the same may be re-incorporated in the manner prescribed in this act, at any time within six years after such dissolution, and thereupon all the estate, real and personal, formerly belonging to the same, shall vest in such corporation, as if the same had not been dissolved: Provided, That in such case the said account and inventory required to be exhibited by such corporation in the cities of New York, Albany and Schenectady, shall be exhibited within one month after such re-incorporation, and triennially thereafter, as above directed.

§ 14. [Relates only to the Methodist Church in the City of New York.]

§ 15. And be it farther enacted, That no religious corporation shall be deemed to be dissolved for any neglect hitherto to exhibit an account or inventory of its real or personal estate, and the annual income thereof, nor for having held or hereafter holding elections of church officers on days before or after any movable feast observed by such church, the intervening time between such elections being more than a solar year: Provided, That such account or inventory shall be exhibited within two years after the passing of this act, and that previous public notice be given to the congregation of the time and place of holding such elections.

§ 16. And be it farther enacted, That whenever any religious corporation shall be dissolved by means of any non-user or neglect to exercise any of the powers necessary for its preservation, it shall be lawful for the religious society which was connected with such corporation to reincorporate itself in the mode prescribed by this act, and that thereupon all the real and personal property which did belong to such dissolved corporation, at the time of its dissolution, shall vest in such new corporation for the said society.

AN ACT to amend an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation of religious societies, passed April 5, 1813." [Passed February 15, 1826.]

§ 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of New York represented in Senate and Assembly: That if any church, congregation or religious society, now or hereafter to be incorporated, according to the provisions of the third section of the act hereby amended, shall neglect or omit, or have neglected or omitted, at their stated annual election, to choose any one of the three classes of trustees as mentioned in the sixth section of the said act, the said church, congregation or religious society, shall not be deemed and taken to be thereby dissolved, but the trustees then or now already chosen shall continue to hold their offices until others be chosen in their stead; and whenever such neglect or omission shall happen, through defect of due notice or otherwise, the trustees of said church, congregation or religious society, or a majority of them, shall immediately thereafter give notice thereof in writing, to the minister, or in case of his death or absence, to the elders or churchwardens, and in case there shall be no elders or churchwardens, then to the deacons or vestrymen of any such church, congregation or society; and the said minister, or in case of his death or absence, one of the said elders or churchwardens, deacons or vestrymen, shall, in the manner prescribed in the third section of the said act, proceed to notify the members of the said church, congregation or society of such neglect or omission, and appoint the time and place for the election of new trustees to remedy the same, of which election at least fifteen days' notice shall be given in the manner aforesaid. And the said election shall be held and conducted by the same persons, in the same manner, and the result be certified in like manner as is prescribed in and by the sixth section of the act hereby amended, and shall have the same force and effect as elections held under and by virtue of said section, and not otherwise.

§ 2. And be it further enacted, That whenever there shall have been any omission or neglect of any church, congregation or religious society, at their stated annual meeting, to choose any of the trustees, churchwardens, vestrymen, or other officers, according to the provisions of the act hereby amended, such church, congregation or religious society shall not be deemed or taken to have been thereby dissolved; but the trustees, churchwardens, vestrymen or other officers then in office at the time of such omission shall be deemed and taken to be legal officers of such church, congregation or society : Provided, That elections to supply such omissions shall be made within one year after the passing of this act.

§ 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the members of any church, congregation or society, qualified to vote for trustees, wardens or vestrymen, or a majority of them, at any stated annual meeting of the said members, to appoint and fix any day in the succeeding year as the day on which the election of officers of such church, congregation or society shall be held ; and the elections held on such day shall be as valid to all intents and purposes as if the same had been made on the days formerly appointed for that purpose ; and in case elections shall not be held on the days so appointed, it shall be the duty of the trustees, churchwardens or vestrymen, then in office, to give the notice prescribed in the first section of this act, and to proceed, according to the provisions thereof, to an election to supply all vacancies then existing.

AN ACT to amend an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation of religious societies, passed April 5, 1813." [Passed April 16, 1844, by a two-thirds vote.]

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

§ 1. Certificates of incorporation authorized by the "act to provide for the incorporation of religious societies," passed April 5, 1813, which shall be hereafter made or executed, may be acknowledged or proved before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments or proofs of conveyances of real estate, and in the same manner and of the like effect ; and, upon being so acknowledged or proved, shall be entitled to be recorded as in said act provided.

§ 2. All such certificates which have been heretofore acknowledged or proved before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments or proofs of conveyances of real estate, shall, and are hereby declared to be of the same force and validity as if the same had been acknowledged or proved before any one of the officers named in the first section of the act hereby amended ; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to impair or affect the rights of any person or persons in any case where any legal proceedings shall be instituted for enforcing such rights, before the passage of this act.

§ 3. Whenever there shall have been any omission or neglect of any church or congregation, or religious society at their stated annual meeting, to choose any of the trustees, churchwardens, vestrymen or other officers, such church, congregation or religious society shall not be deemed or taken to have been thereby dissolved, but the trustees, churchwardens, vestrymen, or other officers in office, at the time of such omission, shall be deemed and taken to be the legal officers of such church, congregation or society, and shall continue to hold their offices until others be chosen in their stead: Provided, That elections to supply such omissions shall be made within one year after their occurrence respectively, or within one year after the the passage of this act.

AN ACT to amend the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation of religious societies," passed April 5, 1813, and the several acts amendatory thereof. [Passed March 30, 1850.]

§ 1. No church or religious society now incorporated shall be deemed dissolved, nor shall any of its rights or privileges be impaired or affected by reason of the trustees or other persons intrusted with the management of its temporalities having omitted to exhibit an account and inventory of the real and personal estate belonging to such church or society, or of the annual income or revenue arising therefrom, and any forfeiture incurred by reason of any such omission is hereby waived and discharged; and no such account and inventory shall hereafter be required from any incorporated church or religious society, unless the annual income of its property shall exceed six thousand dollars.

§ 2. § 2. The officer to whom such application shall be made shall also be authorized to grant an order allowing any such religious corporation to assume such other and new name, not previously assumed by any other existing religious corporation, on being satisfied by the petition presented to him therefor, verified by oath or by affidavit, that the name of such corporation, by reason of the change of its location or place of worship, or of the name of the place in which its place of worship is situated, or any other change of the circumstances with reference to which its name was adopted, has become incongruous or inconvenient, or that the location or character of such corporation will be more correctly or effectually designated by such change of name.

AN ACT to authorize the erection of free churches or chapels in certain cases. [Passed April 23, 1867.]

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 3. Persons attending public worship in such churches or chapels, or otherwise claiming to be connected therewith, shall not, by reason of such attendance, or claim of any kind, be entitled to vote at the annual election for church wardens and vestrymen, or trustees of the religious corporation, by which such churches or chapels shall have been erected and maintained, and shall not have any right, claim or demand as corporators in said parent church.

Notice.

1. It is the duty of every member of the church to communicate to the Clerk the fact of the death of any relative who is also a member (see page 23). This duty is generally, and, under the circumstances, perhaps excusably, forgotten. Such being the case, it may be considered the duty of every member knowing of the death of another member, though not a relative, to inform the Clerk.

2. It is also extremely desirable that the Clerk should be informed of the marriage of female members of the church, in order that their names may be changed on the register. Such information will be gratefully received from any one, whether a relative or not.

3. Applications for letters of dismission, certificates of membership, etc., should always be made in writing, giving the address to which such letters are to be sent. Members sometimes send such requests without giving any address, when their residence is entirely unknown to the officers of the church.

All such applications must be sent, not to the pastor, but to the Clerk of the church,

THOMAS G. SHEARMAN,

120 Nassau Street, New York, or 181 Hicks Street, Brooklyn.

This Manual was prepared by the following committee:

Henry Ward Beecher,
Thomas G. Shearman,
Francis M. Edgerton,

John T. Howard.
